

Cameron Naqvi

BSc, Executive VP

Having graduated with degrees in construction engineering from the Northern Alberta Institute of Technology and the Del E. Webb School of Construction (Arizona State University), Cameron spent his formative industry years in the U.S. as a real estate representative for Safeway. He then came into the family company, joining sister Tina and father Jerry in the role of Director of Development. He has since assumed the duties of Executive Vice President.

Cameron sits on various real estate and development industry boards; alumni member of the Del E. Webb School of Construction, and member of the Alberta Real Estate Association and the International Council of Shopping Centres (ICSC). He is also the Chair of the City of Edmonton Chamber of Commerce Transportation Committee and a member of the Canadian Red Cross Fund Development Advisory Committee.
